

Wheats&Women International Conference

The Wheats&Women International Conference is organized by the Italian National Academy of Sciences detta dei XL and the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development (ENEA), on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the birth of Carlotta Strampelli, countess Parisani (1868-1926), wife and key collaborator of Nazzareno Strampelli. The Conference will offer the opportunity to present and share the latest research experiences, new approaches and technologies in wheat research; highlight “what” the sustainable wheat production problems are and “how” they can be solved; celebrate the achievements of women working on wheat and related species. The sessions will be dedicated to: Breakthrough discoveries impacting wheat; New breeding approaches for sustainability and food security; Improving wheat quality for processing, health and nutritional value; Agriculture and 2030 Agenda (the future of farming).

The Conference Scientific Committee welcomes your abstracts for oral presentations. The submission deadline is March 30th 2018. All submissions should be made on line.

The Carlotta Award is established on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of Carlotta Parisani Strampelli's birth (1868-2018) in recognition of the significant contribution of women scientists to the advancement of knowledge in the field of wheat genetics and breeding research.

The Carlotta Award is promoted by the Accademia Nazionale delle Scienze detta dei XL and ENEA - the Italian National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development.

The first 2018 Edition of the Award will be hosted in Italy where Carlotta Strampelli operated, in the hope that in the following editions the Carlotta Award will be based in a different Country with the support of the International Scientific Community and become a recognized International Award that honors successful women in wheats research.

Carlotta Award 2018

The Carlotta Award 2018 will be delivered in the frame of the "Wheats & Women" International and 2018 by filling the forms to be downloaded from the website www.wheatwomen-carlotta2018.com and sending the submission letter, the scientific work presentation and the brief Curriculum Vitae to: Carlotta Award Organizing Committee c/o Accademia Nazionale delle Scienze detta dei XL – Via L.
